

SOUL BOOSTER No. 2 | NEW LEARNING

Learning to live a Soul-led life is not meant to be a final destination – but an adventurous journey. It will always be a journey; one that requires patience, desire, and willingness to commit. The soul’s desire is to always bring us to wholeness.

Whether you’re new to understanding and learning to live in partnership with your soul, (the real you) or if you’ve been on a spiritual path for years... there is always an opportunity to learn and increase your soul awareness. When it comes to Soul learning, we’re often our own worst enemy. We sometimes believe we should be able to master a new level of growth the first time it presents itself.

Always look forward to learning new ways of living a Soul-led life, as opposed to viewing it as ‘work’ or an arduous task. When you welcome new opportunities and the lessons you need to learn here – it will always increase your energetic vibration and your consciousness, and in turn, more positive opportunities will be drawn to you. Some that you may have asked or wished for, or some that may surprise you. Your soul knows what you want - but more importantly it knows what you need.

This Week’s Soul Learning Boost

Be aware of new people, places or even new books that come your way this week. Even a conversation with someone you don’t know may hold words of wisdom for you. Please journal your week and you may be surprised that one of these opportunities was in fact soul-directed.

Affirmations for the Week

“I AM SOUL”

“I NOW welcome & allow my Soul to lead me to new learning & opportunities that are for my highest good.”
